WORKSHOP ON

FORGIVENESS & RECONCILIATION

in the Church

01st May 2008

Workshop Description

The workshop will focus on gaining a biblically based understanding of what healthy forgiveness and reconciliation are, how to embody forgiveness and work toward reconciliation after we've been hurt by someone we thought we could trust, and how to help others in their efforts to forgive and reconcile.

Workshop Speaker

Dr Wanda Malcolm, PhD is a clinical psychologist and Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Psychology at Wycliffe College, a theological college in University of Toronto. She teaches courses in self and pastoral care, as well as a course called "Forgiveness and Reconciliation in the Church and in the World." This course seeks to facilitate students' efforts to embody the Christian virtue of forgiveness in their own relationships and spheres of influence, and to assist them in their efforts to think "Christianly" about scholarly and secular understandings of forgiveness and reconciliation. Dr Malcolm has also taught a course on "the psychology and theology of forgiveness" for counselling students at Tyndale Seminary.

Dr Malcolm did her clinical training with the founder of Emotion Focused Therapy (EFT), Dr Leslie Greenberg, and continues to work with him on an ongoing psychotherapy research project that investigates the process of facilitating forgiveness and reconciliation. They have co-authored chapters in two of the seminal edited books on the psychology of forgiveness. Dr Malcolm is the senior editor of "Women's Reflections on the Complexities of Forgiveness" (2007), a collection of essays authored by women involved in key research and clinical work that focuses on forgiveness and reconciliation. She is sought out for media interviews and often speaks to church and community groups about forgiveness and reconciliation.
